No, my descent goes "Yankee" Dave (and Sarah Altman), to Jonathan David (and Loucinda Jones), to David Eugene (and Sina Thrift), to William Harley (and Annie Eliza Henderson), to Oscar Jonathan, Sr. (and Mary Belle Culbreth), to me.

"My descent from "Yankee Dave" Hickox is via his son Jonathan David, his son David Eugene, his son William Harley, and his son Oscar Jonathan, (Sr.)"

Just to make sure I am on the correct track, William Harley was the son of David and Lucinda Jones?

Or if it's easier you can scan and email me anything.

OK, Cuz, I'll start.

I'm Oscar Jonathan Hickox, Jr. (Go by "OJ" or "Jon"), born Brunswick GA 6 Oct 1939, grew up on a small family farm outside town, left in 1957 to pursue a college education and a career, never lived there again. Now live in NE VA on the lower Potomac River near the Chesapeake Bay, retired US Navy. My descent from "Yankee Dave" Hickox is via his son Jonathan David, his son David Eugene, his son William Harley, and his son Oscar Jonathan, (Sr.). My mother was a Culbreth from Waycross. I spent much of my adolescence at Harley's farm on the Satilla River just north of Hoboken in Brantley County and I knew both his mother Sina Thrift Hickox (b. 1866) and his wife's mother Nancy Ann Bennett Henderson (b. 1859) quite well. They lived until I was close to being grown and we spent many hours talking about the family and its many interesting experiences during their life-times.

I am a rabid pursuer of genealogical and related historical facts about my ancestors and have accumulated lots of info (and dead-ends !) on them. I specialize in Civil War history, particularly the records of Confederate soldiers and the CW in SE GA, and would be happy to help anyone looking for info in that arena.

I don't know how well this is going to work, but I thought I would give it a shot. Lately I have been finding more and more of you online, and I don't want to loose track of anyone, so I thought this mailing list might be a good way to go. I promise not to spam, and you can always just take yourself off the list if you find me annoying.

Since this is my first try I'll keep it simple. Why doesn't everyone tell me where they are from. While David Hickox spent his life in Georga, their has been quite alot of diaspora over the generations.

I'll start, I live in Gilbert, AZ.
