Name: Allison Schneider

Email: allisonmschneider@gmail.com

Website:

Ancestry.com name: allisons09

Add me too the Hickox Project News Letter (very occasional emails):

Comment: Hi there - I'm researching Richard Hickox, who I believe is the son of Reuben, Sr. Your research says James Henry Hickox gave a deposition in 1842 that lists his siblings. Do you have that deposition or can you tell me where he gave it so that I can request a copy?

Thank you!

Hello Jason and Allison-

Unfortunately, at the moment I am unable to put my hands on the source of that statement. While I believe it came from "Upon the Shoulders of Giants", Vol. I or II (or its Errata) by the Zeitlers, et al, I don't have hard copies of either and can't find my copy of the excerpted pages from it. You probably will not readily appreciate that I was in the midst of reorganizing my genealogical files when we abruptly agreed to have our old home placed on the Spring 2015 Virginia Garden Club Tour; consequently all my haphazardly-organized files were immediately piled into boxes and shoved under the bed for sorting out later. "Later" hasn't arrived yet. ☹ At any rate, I will go on a hunt for it and will let you know if and when it shows up.

My recollection of the essence of the matter is that James Henry was asked to make a statement having to do with the settlement of his siblings' shares in the family estate, at least one of whom, John, was deceased, having been killed in the War of 1812. In making his statement, he enumerated all the off-spring of his parents, both living and deceased, and included a David, hence my interest in the matter. But, having no immediate interest in the others, I did not list them in my paper on my GGG GF David.

In the meantime, Allison, you might try for a copy of the two books, and their errata, on an Inter-Library loan to see if the discussion on his deposition can be found. I will, as promised, try to find my copy of the excerpt. Sorry I can't do better at the moment.

Thanks for checking and congrats on the garden tour - it must be beautiful! Richard is my GGGG GF and I'll look for the books. Please let me know if you are able to find anything else.

Thanks again,
Allison

I have digital copies. Here you go! I haven't had the opportunity to dig into these myself, so please let me know what you find.

Hi guys -

I've been working on this and wanted to circle back with the original probate document I was able to locate on ancestry. You have to love the internet! I am SO glad that you posted the existence of this record, or I may have never been able to prove the connection. Thank you!

Allison

Well Bless your heart, Darlin' ! This is a wonderful piece of genealogical "sleuthing", congratulations, and thanx for sending a copy. I'm going to try to do a better job of filing it away, now that I have it again.

I can read most of it, altho' I find the signature of the recorder to be a bit awkward.

Do you want help on any of it ?

-OJ.
