From Sherwood's Gazetteer; Map of Georgia, 1929. The land allotted in 1827 was bounded by the northern boundary of Carroll, the eastern boundary of Coweta thence to and along the Flint River and along the southern boundary of Lee and Randolph. There were five counties or sections: 1, Muscogee; 2, Troup; 3, Coweta; 4, Carroll. The other counties are subdivisions of the original
